

Gravitational Waves signatures from collisions of exotic compact objects

Wednesday 13 November 2019 11:30 (15 minutes)

I will talk about GW signatures from the collisions of exotic compact objects (ECOs). I will argue that getting good high quality signatures require good control over the initial conditions which is currently one of the key challenges. I will also discuss whether ECOs can act as black hole mimics.

Author: LIM, Eugene

Presenter: LIM, Eugene

Session Classification: Short talks