Learning from Other Learning Platforms

Please share your thoughts and ideas in this Google Doc.

If we share our ideas in writing, we can more easily remember them and share them with others!

You can scan the QR code to the right, which will take you to the link below the QR code.

If you want your idea or comment to be attributed to you, please include your name in parentheses after it.

This Google Doc will be accessible from a link in Indico and from the link below the QR code.
