

Ingo Börner

Research Associate, University of Potsdam

Ingo Börner studied Russian and German Philology at the University of Vienna. He worked as a teaching and research associate at the Department for German Studies of the University of Vienna and the Austrian Centre for Digital Humanities and Cultural Heritage of the Austrian Academy of Sciences. He has been involved in the development of the DraCor platform, focusing mainly on data modeling and schema development. Since 2021 he has been a research associate at the University of Potsdam, first in the CLS INFRA project and now in DraCorOS, connecting the DraCor ecosystem to the European Open Science Cloud by building the DraCor Open Knowledge Graph. His research interests are in computational literary studies, digital editions and semantic web technologies.
