

Phil Reed

Coordinator, TeSSH4EOSC
Research Community and Training
Manager, University of Manchester

Coordinator for EOSC Gravity inter-project TeSSH4EOSC with The University of Manchester and HZDR. Research Community and Training Manager at the eScience Lab, working with European and global partners such as ELIXIR to further facilitate and encourage FAIR and reproducible research practices. Projects and products include TeSS and mTeSS-X federated training registry, RO-Crate metadata middleware, FAIRDOM consortium of services for research data management, Bioschemas for markup of data, software and training.

Open Research Fellow 2026 at The University of Manchester, working with dRTPs (digital research technical professionals) to formalise and professionalise roles and careers. Software Sustainability Institute Fellow 2025, working on the DIRECT Framework of skills and competencies for dRTPs at a national level. Engagement and Adoption Working Group Lead for the DIRECT Framework.