Rooms and session codes

The opening ceremony and plenary sessions on Tuesday 8 December take place in the Plenary Hall. After the plenary, paper sessions run in parallel on Tuesday afternoon, and on Wednesday and Thursday, in seven rooms at Lemigo Hotel: Muhabura, Karisimbi, Urugwiro, Akagera, Ruhondo, Nasho and Plenary Hall. Each session has a code made of the day, the session number and the room. For example, W2-URU is Wednesday, Session 2 (10:45 to 13:00), Room Urugwiro, and TU3-PLE is Tuesday afternoon (14:00 to 16:30), Room Plenary Hall, and T3-NAS is Thursday, Session 3 (14:00 to 16:30), Room Nasho. On Wednesday and Thursday each room has 25 fifteen-minute slots a day (6 in Session 1, 9 in Session 2 and 10 in Session 3). On Tuesday afternoon each room has 10 slots (Session TU3, 14:00 to 16:30). The seven rooms therefore offer 420 paper slots over the three days. Posters are displayed in the poster area on Thursday 10 December, with presenters standing by their posters from 13:00 to 14:00 (code POSTER).

AI at ICDIHE 2026

Three activities show artificial intelligence in practice: a 20-minute live AI demonstration in the opening plenary on Tuesday 8 December; a 90-minute hands-on AI workshop for lecturers (day, time and room to be announced); and an AI demonstration desk at the venue throughout the conference, where delegates can see practical AI in action.

Guidance for presenters and session chairs

- Each paper has a 15-minute slot: about 12 minutes for the presentation and 3 minutes for questions.
- Please be in your room at least 10 minutes before your session starts and introduce yourself to the session chair.
- Load your slides (PowerPoint or PDF) onto the room computer before your session, ideally during the preceding break. Bring a copy on a USB drive.
- Session chairs keep time and present papers in the order printed here, so that delegates can move between rooms.
- Session chairs will be announced before the conference.
- Presenters whose slot needs a correction should write to aluqman@uok.ac.rw with the subject TIMETABLE CORRECTION - Registration No. [number].

Only presentations of delegates whose registration fee has been confirmed or formally waived are scheduled. The programme can still change as late corrections come in; the online version on indico.global/event/18843 is always the latest.
