

Call for Papers - 9th Green Finance Research Advances

Wednesday, December 11, 2024 - Thursday, December 12, 2024

Auditorium, Banque de France

Scientific Program

Innovative financing for climate adaptation

Innovative financing for climate adaptation: investigating new financing mechanisms to support climate adaptation efforts

Climate and nature risk and uncertainty assessment in financial systems

Climate and nature risk and uncertainty assessment in financial systems: studying how climate change (physical and transition) and nature risks could impact financial stability including effects on asset prices and insurance costs

Green finance and sustainable investment

Green finance and sustainable investment: exploring the growth and effectiveness of green finance instruments, such as green bonds and sustainable loans and their role in promoting environmentally sustainable investments

Net zero scenarios, transition plans, assessment of investment and financing needs and green reindustrialization

Insurance products for the climate transition

Ex post evaluations of regulatory, fiscal and financial policy frameworks in the transition to decarbonized economies

Data sets, text mining, metrics and data processing methodologies

Data sets, text mining, metrics and data processing methodologies related to the above topics

Other topics related to the theme of the conference