Preparing for Quantum 2.0

Monday 9 June 2025 20:00 (45 minutes)

From lasers to electronics and atomic clocks, quantum science has already transformed our lives. Now, emerging technologies such as quantum computers, sensors and quantum communications, offer the promise of a second quantum revolution. What makes quantum information processing so powerful? How does one cut through the hype to honestly assess its potential? Are you ready to participate in Quantum 2.0? Find out more in this talk.
