

Contribution ID: 100

Type: Talk

Four-Body Scale in Universal Few-Boson Systems

Friday, September 6, 2019 11:45 AM (20 minutes)

We trace the perturbative refinement of the two-boson interaction – which augments an initial, unitary description by a finite effective range – up to the six-boson system. Hereby, we expose a significant dependence of the predicted ground-state energies of tetra-, penta-, and hexameres on details of the interaction which is resolved at distances much smaller than the effective range. We demonstrate how to remove this sensitivity from all  $\leq 6$ -boson systems numerically and semi-analytically with a single four-body contact parameter.

Author: KIRSCHER, Johannes (The University of Manchester)

Presenter: KIRSCHER, Johannes (The University of Manchester)

Session Classification: Parallel Session Friday: Atoms and Molecules

Track Classification: Atoms and Molecules