

Contribution ID: 25

Type: not specified

Dark sector results from Belle II

Tuesday 26 July 2022 11:36 (18 minutes)

Belle has unique reach for a broad class of models that postulate the existence of dark matter particles with MeV—GeV masses. This talk presents recent world-leading physics results from Belle II searches for dark Higgstrahlung and invisible Z' decays; as well as the near-term prospects for other dark-sector searches.

Co-authors: FEICHTINGER, Paul (Austrian Academy of Sciences (AT)); LIBBY, James (Indian Institute of Technology Madras (IN))

Presenter: FEICHTINGER, Paul (Austrian Academy of Sciences (AT))

Session Classification: Parallel Session A

Track Classification: Particle Physics