General introduction to 3D radiotherapy

Wednesday 7 September 2022 11:00 (15 minutes)

Nowadays, when the complexity and severity of cancer is increasing, conformal radiotherapy has proven to be one of the most effective methods to reduce the impact of cancer on patients. In my presentation, I will present to everyone an overview of 3D radiotherapy, through the main sections, such as: What is radiation therapy? 3D radiotherapy and its application cases; Steps to have a 3D radiotherapy plan; Typical cases in 3D radiotherapy. Finally, I will draw a general summary of 3D radiotherapy.
