XXVI DAE-BRNS High Energy Physics Symposium 2024

Contribution ID: 109

Type: Postar

Single level QCD at zero chemical potential using Random Matrix Theory

We study an SU(N) matrix model with a bosonic weight function and a fermionic interaction term at zero chemical potential. This model represents QCD at a single energy level. We compute the phase transition and provide exact results for several physical quantities in the confined phase, such as free energy and winding Wilson loops.

Field of contribution

Theory

Author: MALIK, ANUJ (Physics Department, MNIT Jaipur)
Co-author: Dr AHMED, Anees (Physics Department, MNIT Jaipur)
Presenter: MALIK, ANUJ (Physics Department, MNIT Jaipur)

Track Classification: Formal theory