

Contribution ID: 14

Type: not specified

What is superconductivity?

After a quick introduction on the physical background of superconductivity and its phenomenological models, I will address the mathematical formalism leading to the derivation of the Bardeen-Cooper-Schrieffer functional, present the state of the art and comment on open problems and possible research directions.

Presenter: SAFFIRIO, Chiara (University of Basel)